

Appendix B: Definitions for Dental Care

For the purposes of this order relating to dental care for chronic conditions or preventive services the following definitions apply:

Chronic

- Management or treatment of periodontal conditions
- Management of caries and erosive conditions
- Long standing or existing diseases or conditions involving muscles and/or head, neck oral structures

Preventive

- Services for diagnosis of dental disease
- Periodontal and restorative care to prevent exacerbation of disease